

Claude Monet
had cataracts.

Cataract – An opacity of the lens that results in diminished acuity but does not affect the person's field of vision.